No Place for the Boys. A STORY FOR PARENTS.

There is much sound sense in the folowing extracts from an article in the Mother's Magazine. The social evil referred to, is one too prevalent in the community, and to it may be attributed the ruin of many a young man.

Does it not seem as if in some houses there is actually no place for the boys? We do not mean the little boys-there is always room for them; they are petted and caressed; there is a place for them on papa's knee and at mamma's footstool. if not in her arms; there are loving words, who tread on your dress, and upset your work-basket, and stand in your light, and Philadelphia, manufacturers of galvanized and all qual whistle, and drum, and shout, and ask colar. questions, and contradict.
